Offer of International Transfer to Amazon Commercial Services Pty Ltd

Dear Mike,

On behalf of Amazon Commercial Services Pty Ltd (the "Company"), I am very pleased to offer you an internal transfer to the position AMZL ACES SME, job level 6, located in AUS reporting to Jake Brown. This letter clarifies and confirms the new terms and conditions of your employment with the company.

Start Date and Salary

Unless we mutually agree otherwise in writing, you will commence employment in your new position with the company on a date to be determined, pending approval of your work visa. You will receive a gross base pay of 159,000 AUD , payable in accordance with the company's standard payroll practice and subject to applicable withholding taxes. Your salary will be reviewed in accordance with internal performance reviews systems, details of which are set out in the company's policies and procedures. Your base salary may be reviewed from time to time in accordance with company policy/practice but will not necessarily be increased.

If in the event that the visa approval or other non-controllable delays (as determined by Amazon in its discretion) result in your internal transfer occurring after end of current compensation year, your compensation set out in this internal Transfer Offer letter may be modified to reflect the adjusted position in that new compensation year in line with Amazon's usual local compensation model and review processes. Any such modification will be confirmed to you in writing.

Local Allowances

Local allowance information is presented in the local contract if applicable to the employee and country. This benefit will be payable in accordance with the Law, internal policies and company's standard payroll practice and subject to applicable withholding taxes.

Current Equity

The terms of your existing equity grants of Amazon.com, Inc. Restricted Stock Units ("RSUs") based on the separate RSU Award Agreement with Amazon.com, Inc. will remain unchanged. This transfer will have no impact on your vesting dates.

Relocation Support

In accepting the relocation benefits and signing this letter, you acknowledge that if you separate from Amazon for any reason prior to 24 months following your start day in the new location, you will be responsible for repaying Amazon for any relocation expenses paid to you, on a prorated basis. Similarly, if you do not relocate after receiving the relocation reimbursement, you will be required to repay the full amount to Amazon.

Medical, Vacation and Other Benefits

Consistent with the policies and practice of the Company, you will participate in and receive benefits under the local employee benefits plan (including any medical or pension scheme) to the extent generally applicable to other employees of your level. Depending on local employment law, any accrued vacation and personal time may be paid out by your current company prior to your transfer. Once you relocate, the amount of time off available for you will also be dependent on the local policies and practice of the Company. Your pre transfer hire date will be used for determining your rate of benefit accrual if based on tenure (except for the purpose of calculating any entitlement to long service leave, which will be determined in accordance with applicable law in Australia). For additional Benefit information, please review the Benefits information on the Inside Amazon site for your new Company and Country.

Local Contract

On your start date, you will be employed by Amazon Commercial Services Pty Ltd terms and conditions of employment. You will be employed via a local employment contract if the local employment laws of your new country require one. Upon acceptance of a local employment agreement signed by you, any current employment agreement with Amazon UK Services Ltd., if one exists, will be automatically terminated on your Start Date with Amazon Commercial Services Pty Ltd. As a condition of your transfer to this new position, you may be required to sign a new NDA. Further, you understand no position will be held open for you at your current company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, you fully understand and acknowledge that (i) the execution and delivery of this offer letter does not create an employment relationship between you and the Company, (ii) your employment with the Company is contingent upon your execution and delivery of the Employment Agreement and other documents requested by the Company, and (iii) upon execution and delivery of documents, unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing, your employment with Amazon will not start until the Start Date.

Immigration

This Offer of International Transfer is subject to and conditional upon you being lawfully authorized to work in Amazon Commercial Services Pty Ltd. Therefore, before your first day of employment in your new location, you will need to produce confirmation of legal work authorization.

If this offer includes immigration support, we will use our reasonable efforts to procure any required documentation, including visas and/or work permits. Your transfer will not commence until the proper visas and work permit are approved and procured. If your application for a visa and or work permit is denied, this Offer of International Transfer will be null and void. Neither Amazon nor its vendors can guarantee the approval of any visa or work permit as this is subject to and at the direction of the relevant governmental authorities. While Amazon or its vendors may be able to assist you in the work permit and visa process, you will be solely responsible for providing all necessary personal documents as requested by the immigration authorities and HR, and are solely responsible for ensuring that your personal documents, including passports, permits and visas, are valid and up to date.

Taxes

You will be responsible for taxes resulting from your decision to move to another country, including any increase in taxes, and will not seek indemnification from Amazon or any of its subsidiary companies for the tax implications resulting from your decision to move across national borders. This includes the tax implications for company, personal and equity-based income. Amazon.com will withhold estimated taxes due as a result of your decision to exercise stock options or at the time your Restricted Stock Units vest. You will remain completely responsible for your taxes, including tax reporting, in any jurisdiction where taxes are owed, regardless of country. Amazon advises you to speak with your personal tax advisor, along with any third-party tax advice provided to you.

Settling-In Time

As part of your relocation to the new location, you will be entitled to five (5) additional days of personal time off to settle into your new home or attend to other activities, including but not limited to, receiving your household goods, registering at local government offices and opening a bank account. These settling in days off need to be coordinated with your hiring manager. The settling in days off do not need to be reported in the time-off tool nor do they count against any accrued vacation or personal days. The days do not need to be taken consecutively, however, must be used within the first six (6) months of your arrival in the host country. The settling in days off are also not an accrued benefit and not subject to pay out if you or Amazon terminates your employment.

Depending on the country (visit Work Authorization - Country-to-Country Transfers Inside Amazon page), if you plan to use any of the five settling in days during your first work week in the new location, you must still complete required work authorization verification. Failure to do so will result in being placed on an unpaid suspension due to work authorization non-compliance.

Confidentiality

This letter regarding the terms and nature of your international move is intended to remain confidential in nature. Discussions surrounding the details of your transfer should only be discussed with your manager, HR, and those individuals specifically designated to assist you with your move.

This offer is contingent upon the successful completion of role-specific screening requirements, which may include, but are not limited to, a background check, drug screening, medical examination or physical, and/or verification of any required or preferred degrees, licenses, certifications, or other credentials.

This internal transfer offer and all terms and conditions of employment stated in this letter will expire 10 days from the date of this letter.

Sincerely,
Internal movement hub
On Behalf of Jake Brown
