

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS – Restricted Stock Unit (RSU)

Q1: How will my RSUs be taxed at vest?

Your RSUs will be subject to tax in accordance with the rules of the jurisdictions in which the income was earned. This means the withholding required will depend on the countries where you worked between the award date and the date of vest. The following taxes may also apply: national income taxes, state/provincial/municipal/local taxes and/or social taxes.

Q2: I am working in one of the following countries on the RSU Vest Date. How will my RSU be taxed?

|                                   |                      |           |             |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------|-----------|-------------|
| Australia                         | Bahrain <sup>1</sup> | Chile     | Croatia     |
| Czech Republic                    | Denmark              | Estonia   | Greece      |
| Hong Kong                         | Hungary              | Indonesia | Japan       |
| Jordan                            | Kuwait               | Mexico    | New Zealand |
| Nigeria                           | Philippines          | Poland    | Portugal    |
| Saudi Arabia                      | Serbia               | Singapore | South Korea |
| Sri Lanka                         | Taiwan               | Thailand  | Turkey      |
| United Arab Emirates <sup>1</sup> |                      |           |             |

Income Tax*: Amazon is not required to report income and withhold taxes at the time of vest. You are responsible for reporting the value of the shares received at vesting on your annual personal income tax return and paying the related income taxes that are due on this income.

**Please note that your award may be subject to additional withholding in the country where you were working on the date of grant or any country(s) worked in between grant and vest (see below).*

<sup>1</sup> For US citizens working in Bahrain and UAE, US federal income and social taxes will be withheld on the full RSU income.

Social Tax: Amazon is not required to withhold social taxes at the time of vest.

Q3: I received my RSU award in or worked in one of the following countries prior to the vest date. How will my RSU be taxed?

|           |              |             |            |
|-----------|--------------|-------------|------------|
| Argentina | Austria      | Belgium     | Canada     |
| China     | Colombia     | Egypt       | France     |
| Finland   | Germany      | India       | Luxembourg |
| Malaysia  | Morocco      | Netherlands | Romania    |
| Slovakia  | South Africa | Switzerland | UK         |
| US        |              |             |            |

Income Tax*: Amazon is required to report and withhold tax on the portion of the RSU income which was earned in that jurisdiction between grant and vest.

*Note: If your award was granted in or, during the vesting period, you worked in Australia, Bahrain, Brazil, Chile, Costa Rica,

Czech Republic, Denmark, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Kuwait, Mexico, Morocco, New Zealand, Norway, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, Spain, South Korea, Sweden, Taiwan, Turkey, United Arab Emirates, or Vietnam, and you do not reside in that country on the date of vest, the award will not be subject to withholding in that jurisdiction at vest. You may be responsible for reporting and paying any taxable income attributable to your RSUs directly to the tax authorities in the applicable jurisdiction(s).

Social Tax***

Your RSU award will not be subject to reporting or withholding for social tax purposes.

*Exception: if your award was granted in Luxembourg or UK, the pro-rata share of the income that was earned while working in Luxembourg or UK will be reported and subject to social tax withholding.

EXAMPLE:

Country at grant = LUX (Income Tax @ 45%)

Country at vest = Poland (No Tax Withholding by Amazon at vest)

| Payroll Reporting/Withholding (LUX)    |                                               |
|----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| Income Reported                        | $4,800                                       |
| Income Tax Withheld @ 43.6%            | $2,092.80                                    |
| Social Tax Withheld @ 1.4%             | $67.20                                       |
| Payroll Reporting/Withholding (Poland) |                                               |
| Income Reported                        | $0                                           |
| Income Tax Withheld by Amazon          | $0                                           |
|                                        |                                               |
| Total Combined Tax Withholding  | $2,160.00 (withholding rate of 21.6%) |

Q4: How will my RSUs be taxed if I worked/lived in more than two tax jurisdictions?

Your RSU award is likely to be subject to reporting and income tax withholding on the portion of the income earned in these jurisdiction(s) but could be subject to tax withholding on the full RSU income.

Please reach out to the Amazon Global Stock Plan Services team by trouble ticket

(<https://tt.amazon.com/quicklink/Q000010967>) if you have specific questions about your taxation.

Q5: Will Amazon provide me with a breakdown of the taxes withheld and reported by jurisdiction at the end of the tax year?

Each year, Amazon provides mobile employees with a statement detailing out your RSUs vest(s) and the income reported/taxes withheld in each jurisdiction. This statement will be mailed to your address of record (in PeoplePortal) by the end of February for the prior calendar year.

Q6: What if Amazon withholds too much tax?

In order to ensure sufficient funds are available to fund the taxes due, Amazon will withhold taxes based on the top marginal rate. However, the actual amount for remittance will be determined by local payroll. To the extent Amazon has withheld in excess of the amount due to the tax authorities, the difference will be refunded to you via payroll.

Q6: What if Amazon pays too much to the tax authorities? How can I get it back?

You should consult your personal tax service provider to determine the status of your personal tax situation and assist with the filing of a tax return to claim any potential refunds or make any additional payments, if required.

These FAQs are not personal tax advice. The information in these FAQs may not apply to your particular circumstances or tax or financial situation, and Amazon is not in a position to assure you of any particular tax result. Rather, the FAQs are for informational purposes only. Accordingly, you are strongly advised to seek appropriate professional advice as to how the tax or other laws apply to your specific situation.